Feedback or Questions for Next Meeting

The Council acknowledged the report.

Councillor Paul Blackwell raised concerns regarding ongoing antisocial behaviour in the Plas Madoc area, referencing last year's tragic murder and the continued rise in incidents. Councillor Blackwell requested that the Council write to the new Inspector responsible for the area to express community concerns and seek reassurance regarding policing levels and visibility.

This proposal was seconded by Councillor Katie Witherden, who highlighted that the community feels increasingly abandoned, particularly with the growing issues surrounding county lines activity.

Following the publication of the agenda, the Clerk informed Members that an email had been received from PC Emma Watts advising she has now moved from Wrexham Rural, and that Alex Jennings has taken over as Sergeant.

Councillor Blackwell further expressed concern at the frequent changes in local policing staff, noting that other areas appear to maintain consistent officers, which helps strengthen community trust and relationships.

Vice Chairman Councillor Derek Wright suggested that the Police and Crime Commissioner also be included in any correspondence sent regarding policing issues.

Councillor Stella Matthews supported these comments, recognising the ongoing need for a dedicated PCSO in Plas Madoc, and seconded Councillor Wright's suggestion to include the Police and Crime Commissioner, noting that the wider community also requires improved policing support.

It was agreed that the Clerk write to the new Inspector and copy in the Police and Crime Commissioner to express the Council's concerns regarding police presence, staffing consistency, and community safety in Plas Madoc and the wider Cefn area.

I recently organised a Double Focus Band afternoon, which was a great success. Everyone who attended thoroughly enjoyed the event — it was a lively and sociable afternoon filled with dancing, good food, and conversation. The feedback was extremely positive, with many people commenting on how lovely it was to come together and enjoy live music and friendship in a relaxed setting.

Following on from that success, I am now organising another band afternoon at George Edwards Hall on Friday 6th December, from 2pm to 6pm, featuring Double Focus once again. The event will include a buffet and promises to be another enjoyable social afternoon for residents, especially as we head into the festive season.

The Tuesday Ladies Club, which was previously held at CRNCA, has now moved to Llys y Craig following the closure of CRNCA. The group continues to meet there to play bingo, cards, and socialise, and they have settled in well to their new venue. It's been lovely to see them maintaining their friendships and continuing to meet regularly.

I have also started a Cinema Club at Plas Telford, which takes place on the first Monday of every month. The club has been well received and gives residents the opportunity to relax, enjoy a film, and have a chat over light refreshments in a friendly and welcoming space.

My Thursday drop-in sessions at Cefn Mawr Library have also been a great success, with members of the public calling in for advice, support, and signposting to services. These sessions have proved valuable in helping residents access the information and assistance they need in a comfortable and approachable environment.

In addition, I am completing a Warm Space grant application with the help of Andrew, which will allow us to continue providing inclusive and welcoming spaces for residents to meet and socialise during the colder months.

73.REPORTS FROM MEMBERS

73.1 Councillor Sonia Benbow-Jones reported that the gate at Cae Glo has not yet been moved. Councillor Stella Matthews thanked Councillor Benbow-Jones for raising the matter and explained that it is a legal issue which is currently being addressed. The matter currently sits with legal, and the Council will await confirmation.

73.2 Councillor Sonia Benbow-Jones raised the idea of installing a notice board in Acrefair, citing concerns from residents that they feel forgotten and are unaware of local events. This proposal was seconded by Councillor Stella Matthews. Councillor Phil Vaughan reported that the Council previously had a notice board located by the canal, which had been removed to make way for picnic tables. The notice board had been recovered in Ellesmere for the past two months, and it was suggested that it could now be relocated to Acrefair. Councillor Derek Wright proposed that the Community Development Officer be tasked with identifying suitable potential locations for additional notice boards across other wards, to ensure all areas of the community have appropriate access to information.

73.3 Councillor Benbow-Jones also thanked the George Edwards Hall caretaker, Mr Wayne Milner, for clearing broken glass during the Navigating Through Time event, which was well attended and described as a positive community experience in Cefn. Councillor Gaynor Wright noted that insufficient information had been provided about the event, which she felt was a missed opportunity. She also confirmed that the day itself, organised by the Canal & River Trust, was well received. Councillor Vice Chairman Derek Wright suggested that advertising the event six weeks in advance could have increased attendance further.

Councillor Stella Matthews suggested that the community would have appreciated an official opening ceremony to mark the occasion.

73.7 Councillor Phil Vaughan reported that he and the Community Development Officer attended the Keep Wales Tidy Awards in Llandudno, where Cefn Community Council was awarded a certificate for the Cleaner Communities Award. Ms J Palmer also received a certificate at the same event.
